

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

For the last number of weeks a group comprised of a few members of FBC Yazoo and a few members from Word of Faith (the local church next door) have been praying and meeting together in order to plan another Block Party. As you might recall, the Holly Jolly Block Party had to be cancelled during December 2021 due to the potential of bad weather. This group and so many others from both churches believe strongly that we need to come together and do something in the Name of Jesus Christ to proclaim the Gospel and bring people in this community together. An Easter Block Party is now planned. Many are in preparation and prayer modes. Here is what is planned:

There will be 2 egg hunts [more than 2,000 eggs have already been filled with candy during a recent luncheon], egg toss games (delicious cakes to the winners), face painting, kettle corn, egg races, cotton candy, a craft station, hayrides, bounce houses, a petting zoo, grilled hamburgers and hotdogs, a possible dunking booth, and prize drawings with the ultimate prize being a large TV, and more! Every person who registers will receive an Easter bag with an egg embossed with a Christian message, and a Gospel tract will also be enclosed. Every person who registers will be eligible for the drawings.

Due to many Easter egg hunts bound to be planned on the Saturday before Easter we decided that the block party will be held on Good Friday.

Have you ever wondered, "Why is the Friday before Easter called 'Good?'" If you had asked Mary (Jesus' mother) or any of the disciples to give a word describing the events of that Friday it would not have been "good." Remember what they watched happen - Jesus being severely flogged resulting in great blood loss, a crown of thorns pressed into His head, being forced to carry His cross to the place of execution, watching the One they believed to be Messiah nailed with heavy spikes to a wooden cross, listening to people mock and jeer at Jesus while He hung on the cross, watching Jesus' life drain away in agony, and seeing a centurion thrust his sword into Jesus' side to make sure He was dead. I doubt any of them would have chosen the word "good" to describe the days events.

It is debatable exactly when and why the adjective "Good" became attached to "Friday." If you have an enquiring mind there are a number of theories you can find on the internet to ponder. However "Good" and Friday came together there are very good reasons for doing so. Consider the following:

- What Jesus Christ was doing on the cross was VERY GOOD in the eyes of God the Father. According to Isaiah 53:10 it was the will of God!
- What Jesus Christ was doing on the cross was VERY GOOD for sinners, which is all people, including you and me!
-Romans 3:23 – "for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God ..."
-Romans 6:23 – "For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord."
-Jesus Christ, God in flesh, came to be the sacrificial lamb for the sins of Human Kind. Jesus served as our propitiation - a sacrifice in behalf of humanity.

-Jesus received in Himself the full wrath of God against sinful humanity.

-Jesus' sacrificial death served to satisfy the demands of God's righteousness and holiness which requires atonement [payment in death] for sin.

-1 John 2:2, "[Jesus] is the propitiation for our sins and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world."

-John 3:16-18, "For God so loved the world, that He gave his only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through Him. Whoever believes in Him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God."

-Romans 5:8 – "God shows His love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." God did all of this because He loves us.

-Romans 10:9-10 – "... if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scripture says, 'Everyone who believes in Him will not be put to shame' ... 'For everyone who call on the name of the Lord will be saved.'"

-Faith/ belief / trust is more than intellectual acknowledgement.

-Followers of Jesus understood that faith is active and living. I live out my faith in Jesus Christ by abiding in Him, yielding to His indwelling Spirit, and obeying God's word and God's will.

-In other words, the reality of one's faith is revealed everyday by actions of obedience flowing from his or her faith in keeping with God's absolute truth – the Bible.

-To those who live out such faith in God ...

-Romans 8:1, "There is therefore no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus."

Authentic followers of Jesus Christ get to live out that love relationship with God while on this earth and for all of eternity! I think those are amazing reasons for the word "Good" being added to that particular Friday!

Don't forget ...

Hey everyone,
I pray you are growing and learning a lot! This past month has been exhausting for me with school papers and book reports due. I find myself tired and disconnected from a lot of things. Have you ever been in a season like that? For a lot of us this second semester of school before summer is a mad rush of busyness. One of the by-products of this is that we allow some major things to fall through the cracks. Things like quality time with family, healthy eating, and yes, interaction with church and God's word. I have been reading a lot about "what is the gospel, and what does it look like in the everyday life." For us, that's taking the time to influence the places and spaces we have been placed. Don't fall into the trap of just getting by and neglecting important things in your life, whatever that may be. Our young marrieds Sunday School class has been talking a lot about how we need to get back in routines that are beneficial to our families. For each of them it boiled down to Christ and church taking a backseat in many different ways. I want to encourage you all that we will remain in this same pattern until we begin to put healthy community around us and decide to be different! My Sunday school class is constantly encouraging me with their desire to change and grow. Not only to be an example to their children, but for themselves as well. All that to say... don't get too busy with meaningless things that don't impact The Gospel. Instead look to how you can get into good community and thrive.

I pray that you are looking to Easter as a moment to celebrate! Easter more than anything is a day that gives us validation to continue to grow and share in our walk with Christ. "Let the resurrection joy lift us from loneliness and weakness and despair to strength and beauty and happiness." — Floyd W. Tomkins

As you prepare for Easter, don't become so enthralled in all the plans or the fancy clothes. Be amazed that the King of kings, Lord of lords, has risen for you and me.

P.S. Also be on the lookout for students selling Jambalaya Fundraiser tickets! This helps them pay for summer activities such as Mission Trip and Camp. INSTRUCTORS NEEDED

Come on in...ALL KIDS! We plan on singing at the beginning of our Palm Sunday Service, April 10, and we need you to join us.

As we continue, there will be other singing opportunities so you don't want to miss this. Each Sunday night at 5 pm in the fellowship hall. We will learn some music theory but mostly learn various songs to be presented later during a worship service.

James 1:17 (CEB) echoes this truth: "Every good gift, every perfect gift, comes from above. These gifts come down from the Father." So once we really believe that all the things we have ultimately belong to God, we can go forward into the practice of giving back to God."

The worship ministry of FBC is making plans. Plans that include YOU. Do you play an instrument well enough to show someone who has a desire but never pursued the opportunity to learn? In other words, you have enough of a "beginners knowledge" of a guitar, piano, flute, voice, drums or any other instrument and are willing to teach a beginner...to give them the opportunity to learn and explore that desire?

What about dance, art (whatever technique...water color, pencil, oils,) drama (theatrical arts), photography, graphic design, or sculpture? We are not talking about a professional skill level although for some of you that might apply. We are talking about a basic knowledge and skill to get someone, who has a desire but no direction, started in this opportunity. Your gift, in whatever level it exist, is from God and not to kept to yourself. In fact, it is so important that to Jesus, Zacchaeus' actions in Luke 19 indicated salvation.

Luk 19:8-9; "Later that day Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "I will give half of my property to the poor. And I will now pay back four times as much to everyone I have ever cheated." 9 Jesus said to Zacchaeus, "Today you and your family have been saved, because you are a true son of Abraham."

So what is this all about? Come talk to me about this new and exciting potential program for FBC and I will be more than happy to fill you in. I look forward to hearing from you!
